NARRATIVE:

Loronis Randall is a documented gang member with an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 21. His convictions include escape, domestic violence with injury, contempt of court, battery, vehicle theft, grand theft of property, possession of narcotic controlled substances, theft, petty theft, several cases of petty theft with priors, disturbing the peace, throwing a substance at a vehicle and failing to report. He has served multiple state prison terms the longest being a 28 month term for petty theft with priors. Randall was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on January 5, 2012. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in January 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Randall qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for domestic violence with injury is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
